E. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

E.1 Other legislation

In general, the applicable sections of the Insurance Contracts Act (SFS 2005:104) apply.

E.2 The right of withdrawal

When you take out the insurance via distance contract you have the right to withdraw the purchase within fourteen (14) days of entering into the agreement. If you wish to exercise your right of withdrawal you must inform Europeiska ERV. If you chose to exercise your right of withdrawal, Europeiska ERV is entitled to request that a premium be paid corresponding to the period for which the insurance was valid.

You are not entitled to withdrawal if the distance contract relates to an insurance policy with an agreed validity period of one (1) month or less. In accordance with chapter 3 of Swedish Act on Distance Contracts and Off-Premises Contracts (SFS 2005:59) there are additional rules concerning the right of withdrawal.

E.3 Personal data processing and disclosure of information

Europeiska ERV values your privacy. We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which you give it to us. We will retain your data for the duration required by our operational purposes.

Europeiska ERV will only disclose your personal data to other organizations where we have your permission to do so, or where we are required to do so by regulation. You also have the right to request, in writing and without cost, information from us about the information we have on you and how it is used. You can also notify Europeiska ERV in writing if you do not want your personal data to be processed for purposes that concern direct marketing.

You have the right to ask us to delete the personal data. Please note that in some cases when you make such a request of personal data, we may not be able to honour your request as this may result in us not being able to fulfil our legal obligations or if there is a minimum statutory period of time for which we have to keep your personal data. If this is the case then we will let you know our reasons.
